Christmas.

Ring, merry, joyous happy Christmas bells. Day of glad greetings, happy gatherings, good cheer and kind wishes. Enjoy the blessed occasion—enjoy it fully and rightfully. Lay aside the sad and somber things for the day,—forget them. It is true there may be many dear and precious memories that you would not and could not banish for the world, and it would not be right to, but for the time live in the sunshine, brighten the atmosphere and bring joy to those about you; for the day live for others live for those that love you and are left for you to love. Earth's transitory things have their heavenly side as well as their earthly; look to the farmer and it never fails to remit some ray of light, while the latter may only impart appalling darkness. It has been said, and most truly, too, that life is much what we make it, and so will be your Christmas; it may be the sunshine of your whole life of which you may absorb so much it will so brighten the rugged way you have to tread, half of the sorrows of life will be mitigated, and a large share of its griefs assuaged.

Then drink your fill of its joys, and sip sparingly of its possible sorrows, and thus, dear readers, may you one and all have a most truly joyous, happy and Merry Christmas.

Holiday Spirit.

The Christmas spirit is in the air and it is doubtful if there is a city in the state that has made more elaborate preparations for the holidays than our own. The merchants have responded to the feeling of buoyancy that the season create and they have loaded the shelves and tables and even the floor space of their stores with everything that the season demands. They have bought heavily of holiday goods and everyone of the establishments is a veritable exposition of things that are beautiful and sensible.

Asks Heavy Damages.

It will be remembered that a few weeks ago a young Mr. Pharis, of a well-known Clark county family, and an attendant of the Lexington Asylum, was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for the killing of Fred Ketterer, an inmate of the asylum. The administrator of Ketterer has filed suit for $50,000.00 against the Board of Control and Dr. Redwine, superintendent of the Asylum, claiming the above amount in damages for the killing.

Christmas is what we make it. We know many places where the gifts would seem poor enough if it were not for the love that goes with them. Trading toys would seem almost valueless; but look at the love and sacrifice they represent, and all Gould's ill-gotten wealth could not buy them. The poorer the giver the greater the gift—have we not read how the widow's mite outweighed the whole treasury?

M. J. Fanning, the noted temperance lecturer, of Philadelphia, delivered an address in this city Monday night to a fair sized audience, and made quite an impression upon his hearers. He realized quite a neat sum in his collection. He is making a tour of all the Kentucky counties, and Powell made 91 of the total 119 in the State to visit.

The local postoffice fight is on, and there are three applicants in the field—Miss Bertha Mapel, the incumbent, H. G. Burgher, and E. N. Wilson. All good people, and we are sure to be pleased with the appointment, regardless of which one of the three applicants may be appointed.

Let the keynote of our Christmas be love—"peace on earth, good will to men." Let those whom God has blessed with plenty see to it that their neighbors and friends have good cheer and abundance to make their hearts glad.

We aim to get our paper out next week on Monday in order to get to take a little of the Christmas ourselves. Correspondents will please send in their communication by Saturday that

A bill just passed by Congress enables national banks to lend money on farm mortgages. This is of much interest to the farmers and a great advantage to the banks in making loans. Such loans are limited to farming lands only, to one year at a time and to 25 per cent. of the bank's capital stock.

Christmas is drawing near.

Mrs. Roscoe Newkirk is quite sick at this writing.

Mr. G. W. Lyle, Jr., our clever merchant, is getting things ready for Christmas.

Ye correspondent closed a very successful term of school at Gum Spring Friday.

Mr. Jackson, representing Curry, Tunis and Norwood, of Lexington, was here Friday.

The main occupation these days which engages a greater number of our inhabitants is hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Newkirk and daughter, Miss Mabel, visited relatives at Union Hall one day this week. Reported a good time and a good "old fashion dinner."

Farm for Sale.

Lying on Red River at the mouth of Cat Creek and near Rosslyn station on L. & E. Ry. About 225 acres in entire boundary, 130 acres of bottom land under good fence, subdivided into 8 or 10 lots or fields, all in high state of cultivation and all in grass, well rested and ready to make money on. There is $800 to $1,000 worth of virtually uncultivated timber on the boundary. Plenty of fruit, good barn, nearly new, capable of housing 50 to 60 head of stock, two good never failing wells of water. Plenty of stock water, Red River running on one side and Cat Creek through the middle. Meat house, hen house cribs, &c. Dwelling burned, but a beautiful locust and walnut grove to rebuild in, 1/4 mile from railroad station, mill, post office, school, and church. Price for the entire boundary seven thousand dollars, which is less than $55 per acre for the land in cultivation. Land all around it sells for $65 to $80 per acre. Better than Bluegrass land for you can't wear it out and its products bring more than in the Bluegrass. Best neighbors in the State. Easy terms of payment. You can't beat it. Write to

It is reported that there will be a wedding in "Frosty Hollow" before long. For further information just ask A. R. or R. G. they know.

Mr. and Mrs. "Weed" Barnes gave the young folks a dance one night last week. Those who attended report a nice time. Ye scribe was not there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Howell, of Knowlton visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Dena Billings, this week. Their little son, Paul, is a fine looking fellow. May he live long and be as good a man as his "dad," is our wish.

Miss Anna Broadbudd closed a very successful term of school here Friday, and went to her home on Miller's Creek the following day. The voice of J. N. can be heard almost any time singing "absence makes the heart grow fonder."
